LOCAL BREVITIES.

Matters of Minor Moment in and about the City.
MATINEE at the Grand to-day.
THE GRAND this evening—Field & Hanson's Company.
MILD and murky weather, with signs of rain, yesterday, recalled the fact that this is March.

THE Monarch saloon, in the Reilly block, has been closed by the Schmulbach Brewing Company.

ALREADY the coming to the Opera House of "Jane," to be given by Frohman's company, is looked forward to with unusual interest.

THE Union railroad ticket office will shortly commence the publication of a monthly railroad guide for Wheeling and surrounding towns.

THE scene of "A Hole in the Ground" has been painted entirely new for this season's production of the piece, to be seen here Saturday night.

STILL the condition of Fourteenth street from Main to Market is disgraceful—pavement torn up, and mud and debris on it several inches deep.

CLERK Hook yesterday admitted to record a deed made December 19 by H. F. Behrens and wife to W. E. Williams, for $110, lot 92 in section B in Greenwood cemetery.

McLAUGHLIN & Co. will receive the report of the Hall-Fitzsimmons fight at New Orleans to-night by rounds, and those interested can there watch the progress of the contest.

Two common cases, a drunk and a disorderly, made up the docket of the police court yesterday. Both went to the hill for thirty days in default of money to pay their fines.

THE new Council committees on cemeteries, claims, contracts and equalization and appeals have been called to meet this evening for the purpose of organization, and those on lights, petitions and remonstrances, real estate and salaries for to-morrow night. This concludes the organization of all the committees.

ABOUT PEOPLE.

Strangers in the City and Wheeling Folks Abroad.

Mr. Earl Oglebay arrived in the city last evening from Cleveland.

Mrs. D. W. E. Poisel, of Lancaster, Pa., is visiting at the Hotel Windsor.

H. R. Howard, of Pt. Pleasant, a director of the penitentiary, arrived in the city last evening.

Miss Lydia Bushfield, of Allegheny City, is visiting Miss Janie Good on Fourteenth street.

Mr. Nelson Cecil left yesterday on a week's trip through the east in the interests of the Warwick pottery.

Howard Linn, of Water street, who has been laid up with typhoid fever for six weeks past, was able to be out yesterday.

G. D. Smith and sister, of Middlebourne, Mrs. Ogden, of Willow Island, and Mrs. J. Wyatt Dawson, of Charleston, registered at the Stamm yesterday.

Mr. Frank Lawton, who plays the station agent in "A Hole in the Ground," is acknowledged to be the champion whistler of the profession. He will appear here with the company Saturday night.

W. H. Shull, of Hundred, D. B. Giver, of Parkersburg, E. Wells and daughter, W. and T. J. Buchanan, of Sistersville, S. Ankrom, of St. Mary's, and M. L. Barrett, of Clarksburg, are the West Virginians stopping at the Behler.

Miss Margaret Wells, of Fourteenth street, entertained the members of her Sunday school class at St. Matthew's church and a few other young friends at her home Monday evening, and an enjoyable time was had by all.

Mr. Percy Norton entertained the Country Whist Club in a very pleasant manner last evening at his home in Pleasant Valley. About twenty couples were present to enjoy the event. Elegant refreshments were served, as an enjoyable feature of the evening. The club meets about once a week at the homes of the members.

13. 2:15 pace, ($200, $100, $50, $10, $5).
Some special features will add attractiveness to the annual exhibition.

The Ariel Sextette.

This charming musical organization of accomplished ladies will give a concert at the Y. M. C. A. Thursday evening. The Knoxville Sentinel has the following to say:

"The theatre was literally packed to its utmost capacity last night. The attraction was the concert of the Ariel Ladies' Sextette, under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A. of this city. The programme was bright, sparkling and enjoyable from first to last. The six Misses Smith are all bright and attractive in manner and person and are highly attractive vocalists. The reading and recitations were entrancing by reason of their delicate touches of mimicry.

The Modern Way

Comments itself to the well-formed, to do pleasantly and effectually what was formerly done in the crudest manner and disagreeably as well. To cleanse the system and break up colds, headaches and fevers without unpleasant after effects, use the delightful liquid laxative remedy, Syrup of Figs.

SOME pieces of Royal Worcester, worth $15 and $18, will be sold as low as $5 and $7, in our special sale.
